TAN OXFORDS

ARE NECESSARY THIS SEASON.

THE Tan Oxford is this season claiming its rightful place as the best summer shoe. Tan is the coolest leather that can be worn—the softest and easiest on the feet. Many exclusive styles here, including several of the season's fad—the sailor tie.

Brown Ooze Calf Sailor Tie, welted soles, Cuban heel, plain toe $3.50

Brown Kid Sailor Tie, welted soles, medium heel and toe - - $3.00

Brown Kid Sailor Tie, turn sole, soft as a glove, rather narrow toe $3.00

Lard, Schober & Co.'s Tan Oxfords

A southern tie, made of tan kid, with cloth top and very light turn sole; is a great seller; extremely soft and pleasant to the feet. Then, a great variety of Russia calf welt oxfords for street wear.

Queen Quality Tan Oxfords

Gibson Ties, blucher oxfords and plain lace styles in Russia calf, with welted soles, sailor ties, Gibson ties and button oxfords, in tan vici with light flexible soles. Prices:

Laird, Schober & Co.'s are practically the only women's fine shoes in the country. They are unequalled in any respect—but especially in daintiness of style, flexibility and ease to the feet, and superb fitting qualities. Queen Quality Oxfords are pre-eminent among medium-price shoes—especially in the point of comfortable fit, and we carry a large enough variety in both lines to insure a pleasing selection and perfect fit.

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

A partially demented colored woman, by the name of Vina Morton, made two unsuccessful attempts at suicide, on Wednesday, by jumping into the river at the old Henderson Wharf. Each time she was rescued by Bannan Graves, and was finally locked up by Chief of Police Maugan, as demented. She had been tried for lunacy, but the jury would not convict her.

SOLD HIS HANDSOME HOME.

Mr. C. E. Collins has sold his handsome home, on the corner of Shelby and Second streets, to Maj. A. M. Slack, of the Frankfort Elevator Coal Co. The price paid is private.

BUYS A HOME.

Mr. E. J. Roberts, of this office, has purchased a home at Thorn Hill, consisting of a cottage house of four rooms (together with a storeroom on the lot) from Mr. August Leclerc. The price paid was $1,700 equal to cash.

The sale was made through the real estate agency of Messrs. L. B. Marshall & Co.

Mr. Roberts will get possession of the place June 1st. The storeroom is leased to Mr. Bramlett.

DISASTROUS TORNADO IN KANSAS.

A regular Kansas twister visited Marquette, Kan., on Monday night. A vast amount of property was destroyed. Some twenty-four persons were killed outright, so far as known, and it was feared many more deaths would be reported.

HARGIS TRIAL ENDS IN HUNG JURY.

The trial of James Hargis, charged with causing the assassination of James Cockrell, was finished at Lexington, on Saturday, by the jury stating to the court that they were hopelessly hung—standing ten to two in favor of acquittal. They were discharged.

Hargis was then admitted to bail in the sum of $25,000.

SERIOUS INJURY.

While at play, on Saturday, with some comrades, Master John W. Rodman, Jr., was hit in the eye with a piece of sod thrown by a comrade. The eye was badly injured, but Dr. J. S. Coleman, the oculist, thinks he can save that useful member. The injury was accidental.

JURY HUNG AND WAS DISCHARGED.

The jury in the case of Commonwealth v. Jas. Hargis, in the Fayette Circuit Court, wherein Hargis was accused of conspiring to cause the assassination of James Cockrell, came into court on Saturday morning and stated that they were hopelessly hung and were discharged.

The end of one chapter.

Scratch, scratch, scratch: unable to attend to business during the day or sleep during the night. Itching piles, horrible plague, Doan's Ointment cures. Never fails. At any drug store, 50 cents.

BURGLARY.

The grocery store of Mr. Robt. L. Grinstead, Benson street, West Side, was broken into on Saturday night, and quite a lot of goods carried away. The entrance was made through the front windows. Mr. Grinstead has no idea who the robbers were.

Having a policeman on that side of the river has not helped things much.

When doctors fail try Burdock Blood Bitters. Cures dyspepsia, constipation; invigorates the whole system.

CONFIRMATION AT ASCENSION CHURCH.

A class of fifteen young people were confirmed at Ascension Episcopal Church, on Sunday night last, by Bishop L. W. Burton, of the Lexington Diocese.

BROKE ITS LEG.

The saddle and buggy horse of Dr. N. M. Garrett, which was grazing in the lot, at his residence, on Second street with the bridle Monday afternoon, became frightened when the bridle slipped down over its legs, and ran up Second street to the corner of Conway, where it slipped on the brick street, breaking its leg. The animal was a fine one and very servicable. It had to be destroyed.

Impossible to foresee an accident. Not impossible to be prepared for it. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil—Monarch over pain.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE MET HERE.

My Own Story BY Caleb Powers

This book is a calm, dispassionate account, from the standpoint of the man most interested, of the conditions in Kentucky leading to the assassination of William Goebel, and of Powers' indictment and conviction on the charge of complicity in his murder.

For dramatic situations, human interest and political importance, the case of Caleb Powers is unequaled.

Many Illustrations from Photographs of Actual Scenes connected with the Tragedy.

B. Telford, aged 51 years, after a

His mother, Mrs. Ann Elizabeth Telford, also lives in this city. He was the eldest son of the late Mr. Thos. D. Telford. He was born in Louisville, but lived here a good many years, having come here to enter upon the drug business, in the store of his uncle, Dr. W. H. Averill. Afterwards he owned the South Side drug store, which he sold, when he went to Greenville to reside.
He was a very popular man in his man he was married and had one daughter, who proceeded him to the grave. He leaves a wife, mother and brother, besides a large circle of relatives, here and

THE BIT OF MAGIC LIXEN—A STORY FOR WOMEN.

Mother Nature did her housecleaning without fussing or confusion. She hung out her beautiful white raiment—fresh and fragrant from April showers in housewife fashion—and carpeted the bare earth with the greenest of sward—while the clouds smiled back in laughing sympathy, and the wind whispered secrets as sweet as were the loose blossoms at the old home farm.

Here everything was spotlessly clean. The windows shining from much polishing; the floors scrubbed to mirrored whiteness, paint, varnish, curtains, white-washing, making pictures of that admirable housewifery that the neighbors looked with real envy on the sweet home keeping of Agnes Brooks.

Everything fresh looking and beautiful about the place, save the mistress, herself, who now sat
upon the doorstep in faded calico wrapper, with untidy hair, and a smudge across the smooth, rounded cheek. She had evidently worked herself up to the verge of nervous prostration, ready to laugh or cry at the least provocation and spoke with pronounced earnestness to the man who stood near leaning on the handle of his hoe.

"I am weary unto death,
nothing but work, work, from morning until night! The same routine of cooking, the same old dish washing, the early breakfast, and late supper, with the everlasting sameness of colorless, country existence lonely and uneventful as life itself! There is no time for self-culture; no time for music, or reading, and I am tempted to wish that I were single again!"

"Easy enough to accomplish this," said the man with the hoe, "Tom Marshall is the lawyer who takes such suits and no doubt he would be happy to undertake your case. What crime more must I commit to merit such reward?"

Sarcasm enough on the part of her husband wrought up beyond more possible endurance, and Agnes Brooks did what many another woman has done—ended
the quarrel in tears.

Bathing her eyes as she happened to look up in the face mirrored in the looking glass opposite, and was shocked at her appearance.
"Meh you look like fussing with your husband about being weary of living and tired of work, he has his part of the burthen to

A FAMILY SAFEGUARD

Dr. Green arranges with the Niece of Dr. Boschee to handle her famous Uncle's Great Throat and Lung Cure.

¶The best family safeguard is a reliable household medicine that will cure croup, coughs, colds, chilly sensations, running eyes and nose, sore throat and bronchial affections—that will keep the children proof against all contagious diseases.

¶Such a medicine is Boschee's German Syrup, which has a record of 35 years in the cure of consumption, catarrh and all lung and bronchial troubles.

¶The fame of German Syrup as a consumptive cure, since its purchase by Dr.
Green from the niece of the famous Dr.
Boschee, has extended to all parts of the earth. It has big sales everywhere.

¶Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists.

bear, bearing it bravely. Wash your face, comb your hair, change your dress for something becoming, and I will put about your neck a magic bit of white that shall make you a law unto yourself, and for the sake of love try to do your work without so much energy which must be spent in other ways more conducive to happiness." She knew it was the voice of an inner consciousness—and obeyed it implicitly. Her life is more beautiful than her housekeeping; her influence is more lasting than mere words;
her husband's heart does safely trust in her, and if you were to meet her as I did yesterday, you would not wonder at the wonderful effect of "that magic bit of white linen." N. S. COX.

Two Dyspeptics

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength.
If you are too lean the fat-producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated.
Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not enough Pancreatin.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and in exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Palpitation of the Heart and Constipation. You will like it.

Digests What You Eat

Rests the stomach, rebuilds the tissues and gives firm flesh.

FRANKFORT, MAY 13, 1905

CAN THIS BE TRUE?

We have so often heard it asserted that the Frankfort and Versailles Traction Co. had been financed and that there was no doubt but that the road would be soon under contract, and then have been disappointed, that we had become skeptical about the matter.

In the last few days, however, there have been moves made on the check-board that have put a somewhat better face on the matter.

It is said now, for sure, that a financier, who was here this week, and who went over the ground and the general situation, has agreed to finance the company and that work will commence in the near future.

We earnestly hope that the assertions made may prove correct and that this much-to-be-desired end will be accomplished.

The question of which route the line will take (whether by the Versailles pike or by the Lawrenceburg, Millville and Versailles pikes) has not been settled. We rather incline to the opinion that the first-named will be adopted.

KENTUCKY DERBY RUN IN A SEA OF MUD.

Agile, Capt. S. S. Brown's fine colt, won the Derby, at Louisville, on Wednesday, over Capt. Jim Williams' crack goer, Ramshorn, and Layson, in the slow time of 2:10 1/4.

The track, owing to heavy rains, was a veritable sea of mud.

The race, of course, was a disappointment, owing to the condition of affairs.

Twenty-five thousand people witnessed the race.

Layson was only put in to win third money.

A SAD EVENT.

It is with more than usual regret that we announce the death of Judge Cecil Pence, of Covington, by his own hand, on Tuesday afternoon.

We have known Judge Pence intimately since his service in the Legislature of 1893. He was a jolly, genial and able young lawyer, and was endeared to a wide circle of friends throughout the State.

Long continued ill health caused the trouble.

FOR BOTH

One disease of thinness in children is scrofula; in adults, consumption. Both have poor blood; both need more fat. These diseases thrive on leanness. Fat is the best means of overcoming them; cod liver oil makes the best and healthiest fat and is the easiest and most effective form of cod liver oil. Here's a natural order of things that shows why Scott's Emulsion is of so much value in all cases of scrofula and consumption. More fat, more weight, more nourishment, that's why.

Thirty

Days Was My Life's Limit.

Agony From Inherited Heart Disease.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Cured Me.

One person in every four has a weak heart. Unless promptly treated a weak heart will easily become a diseased heart. A little extra strain from any cause is sufficient to bring on this deadly malady, the most common cause of sudden death. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure will tone up the heart's action, enrich the blood and improve the circulation.

"My trouble began with catarrh and I have always supposed it caused the trouble I have experienced with my heart. I had the usual symptoms of sleeplessness, lost appetite, constipation, palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath and pain around the heart and under left arm. My mother suffered in the same way and I suppose mine was an inherited tendency. At one time I was in agony. I suffered so severely and became so weak that my doctors said I could not live three days. At this time I had not slept over two hours a night on account of nervousness. The least exercise, such as walking about, would bring on palpitation and fluttering of the heart so severe that I would have to give up everything and rest. Nerve and Liver Pills cured me of constipation and heart symptoms disappeared under the influence of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure. I am in better health than I have been in twelve years and I thank Dr. Miles' Remedies for it. I think they are the greatest remedies on earth and I am constantly recommending them to my friends."—MRS. L. J. CANTRELL, Washburn, Tex.

"TRUE, OH! KING."

Postmaster General Cortelyou seems to have a very correct idea of the matter. He says "the very best service a postmaster can render his party is to conduct his postoffice in a proper manner." This position can not well be disputed. An active partisan in the postoffice is apt to forget his duties to the public. He can't well be a political leader and an efficient postmaster at the same time.—Georgetown Times.

It is also equally true that it is just as improper for high State officers, Circuit Judges, etc., to be appointed as chairman of campaign committees and members of county and other committees. "Sauce for the goose, sauce for the gander."

COUNTY WON.

In the suit of the County of Franklin v. Pat McDonald's estate, Judge Stout handed down a decision on Saturday, awarding the county judgment for $400, which it was alleged had been illegally paid Mr. McDonald for negotiating the sale of county lands. The final court ordered the money paid, but Judge Polsgrove contended that there was no law authorizing it. Suit was brought by him to recover, with the result above given.

Extra Values in WHITE GOODS for Commencement Dresses at C. KAGIN & BROS.

RE-ESTABLISHED AS THE QUEEN OF THE THOROUGHBRED'S HOME.

As far back as we can remember (and that is quite a stretch), Lexington has been noted for being the home of the thoroughbred and the place where every promising colt or filly had to start from on its career in the racing world.

A few years back racing declined and that classic old race course, known as the Kentucky Association track, after a bitter struggle, to give way before younger and wealthier rivals, and the grounds were first mortgaged and then sold.

In the last year Capt. S. S. Brown, the noted turfman, purchased the grounds and at once commenced putting the track in condition and erecting the necessary buildings to rehabilitate the track and open it up for racing.

Last week he saw his ambitions realized, and, for ten days, there has been superb racing, witnessed by big crowds, and the spring season of racing closed in a blaze of turf glory.

It is now generally conceded that racing will resume its wonted sphere at the home of the thoroughbred and in the Athens of the West.

Capt. Brown and Lexington both are to be congratulated.

GRAND COUNCIL OF RED MEN.

The Grand Council of the Independent Order of Red Men met in Odd Fellows Temple, at 10 o'clock a. m., on Tuesday.

Rev. M. B. Adams, of the Baptist Church, made the invocation.

Mayor Darnell made a short address of welcome, which was responded to by Great Sachem H. H. Denhardt.

Col. T. Hiter Crockett made the set address of welcome, which was an eloquent and brilliant talk, reflecting credit upon his head and heart. Grand Senior Sagamore L. L. Belout responded.

The following officers were then elected for the ensuing year:

Great Prophet—D. H. Denhardt.

Great Sachem—L. L. Belout.

Great Senior Sagamore—D. H. Russell.

Great Junior Sagamore—R. L. Page.

Great Keeper of Wampum—S. C. Moore.

Great Chief of Records—H. W. Ray.

Representatives to the Great Council—G. A. Ellerkamp, M. B. Wallerstein, John H. Buschmeyer, W. A. Crader.

A large amount of business was transacted.

About 125 delegates were in attendance.

A delightful banquet was served in the banquet room of Odd Fellows Temple, on Wednesday night, which was greatly enjoyed, as a "feast of reason and flow of soul," as well as more substantial matters.

The council concluded its business Thursday.

AN ACQUISITION TO THE LEXINGTON HERALD.

We have the pleasure of announcing that Mr. Charles I. Stewart, formerly of Louisville, and more recently of Philadelphia, has joined The Herald staff. Mr. Stewart was for four years connected with the Louisville Dispatch, a large part of the time having entire charge of that paper, and won for himself the respect, confidence and esteem of those who came in contact with him, as well as a high reputation as a newspaper man by the capacity shown in the editorial control and business management of the paper.

After the failure of The Dispatch, which was inevitable in spite of Mr. Stewart's able and progressive management, he was connected with different papers in Louisville as assistant editor or as managing editor. He was tempted to go from Louisville to the Philadelphia Ledger, with which he has been connected for the past year in a position of importance and responsibility, which he resigned to accept a place on the staff of The Lexington Herald.

He will have charge of the business and advertising department. Mr. Frank S. Reed, who has had charge of that department, taking charge of the subscription department, to which he will devote all of his attention. Mr. Stewart will also do a large part of the editorial work on The Herald, and we congratulate our readers upon our good fortune in securing his services for them and bespeak for him the kindly consideration and generous welcome to which he is entitled at which we feel confident he will receive.—From The Lexington Herald, April 16.

The Citadel is a two-story frame, 22x53 feet in size. The first floor is occupied by the Auditorium; the second floor is used for Officers' Quarters, and is composed of five rooms, besides a toilet and bath room. Ensign Titus, of Cleveland, O., superintended the erection of the Citadel.

MORE DOUBLE TRACK.

Writing in The Raleigh Post of yesterday, Mr. J. C. Caddell foresees the time when trains running between Greensboro and Charlotte will dash through a continuous city, and says that the next ninety-nine-year lease of the North Carolina Railroad by the Southern will call for four tracks instead of one. So, indeed, it will; and this reminds us of the agreeable statement in The Post of yesterday that a force of hands will to-morrow begin grading on the double track between Greensboro and High Point. It is a continuing wonder how the Southern Railway contrives to handle so many trains, passenger and freight, on a single track, between Greensboro and Charlotte, with so few accidents, and a continuing cause of congratulation to the alert and clear-headed train dispatchers. The Southern is a great system, the most effective developer of the South, and it has not undertaken its double-tracking policy too early. Think of the volume of its traffic fifty, even twenty-five years from now.—Charlotte Observer, April 16, 1905.

To obtain the best results use the Southern Railway.

Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, wife of W. M. Johnson, market man, residing at 8440 Blanton St., says:

"My son, Lorenzo, was greatly benefited by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Some time ago he had a bad spell of rheumatism, the attack being so severe that he was hardly able to move about.

From that time on his kidneys seemed to be badly affected for he complained a great deal of a steady, dull aching pain in his kidneys, especially if he stooped or lifted anything. A weakness of the kidney secretions was very annoying at night as it disturbed his rest. One evening I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in our papers and a box was procured at J. W. Gayle's drug store. He began taking them at my request, and to my glad surprise, as well as his own, he noticed almost immediate relief. In a short time the backache had entirely left him, the difficulty with the kidney secretions had been corrected and he felt as well as he ever did."

"DO IT TO-DAY."

"The time - worn injunction, 'Never put off till to-morrow what you can do to-day,' is now generally presented in this form: 'Do it to-day!' That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it to-day—as it has done before for Dr. Boecher's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists. 17c.

CLIMATIC CURES.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor part of, and the rich patient too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those that use German Syrup. Trial bottle, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all drugists.

AWFUL WRECK.

A passenger train on the Pan Handle R. R. ran into a freight train loaded with dynamite, on Wednesday, in South Harrisburg, Penn., with the result that four awful explosions followed, in which more than 50 persons were killed outright and over 100 were injured. Many passengers were blown from the sleeping cars into the river.

It was simply awful.

"DO IT TO-DAY."

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'till to-morrow what you can do to-day," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it to-day—and let that remedy be Dr. Boesche's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all drugists.

STRICTLY GENUINE.

Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following notice recently appeared in the Atchison (Kan.) Globe: "Joe Tack, a well known engineer, running on the Missouri Pacific between Wichita and Kiowa, lately appeared in a big one, with a picture, and when he was in this office to-day, we asked him about it. He says he had terrible pains in his stomach, and thought he had cancer. His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others, who were also cured." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures all stomach troubles. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

MAN'S UNREASONABLENESS

Is often as great as woman's. But Thos. S. Austin, Mgr. of the "Republican," of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife, for female trouble. "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick, she could hardly leave her bed, and five (5) physicians had failed to relieve her. SOME GREAT KENTUCKY FEUDS.

It is good to find in print such a story as "The Truth About Breathitt the Bloody," by James S. Compton, in the May Sports Afield. Wild tales have come from that Kentucky county, made famous by warfare among its mountain farmers; the world outside has known and wondered, but that is all. We have here a revelation. Never before have the underlying reasons—the motives leading to frightful and repeated tragedy—been fully comprehended. The article is so sincerely truthful as to attract the attention of eminent men in all parts of the country. Among the many letters received by Sports Afield since its publication, the following from such an acknowledged authority on American life and folk-lore as Sanley Waterloo is especially interesting. Mr. Waterloo says:

"We have here the inner story of the great Kentucky feud, written by one recognizable at once as the man to tell it, and who, above all, has the gift of portraying scenes and fierce incidents as they were—of describing the situation as it is. It was in pioneer days that Kentucky acquired the grim name of the Dark and Blood Ground. Then the white invader faced the Indian peril; the tomahawk and scalping knife were busy, and the graves of the ambushed lone hunter, or the family surprised unguarded in the cabin, grew sadly numerous in forest and in field. The name was well acquired, but its reason had long since passed, when the feudists, after the Civil War, gave a new fitness and significance to the title which was becoming a mere legend. Bloody indeed has been the ground again—ensanguined, not by Indian raiders—not by warring immigrant factions from other lands—but by descendants of the men who first wrested the wilderness from the savage. Pure Americans, of their type, are these Kentucky slayers; blue of blood, with the desperate courage the blue blood ever owns, but with environments yet too wild for the ethics of modern civilization. The Sicilian vendetta is a puny thing besides a Breathitt county feud and even the ranch is yet counted an allowable feature of the murderous code. This East-rn Kentucky region produces its own red fruit and Prof. Compton's story has the flavor of the atmosphere; his is the gift for entering into the soul of a story with virile faithfulness and feeling."

Other notable articles in the May Sports Afield are: "Tredway Elliott's autobiography of fifty years of frontier life; "The Mutiny" (a stirring sea story by Chas. F. Allen), "Wild Turkey Hunting in Texas," "Salmon Fishing in New Brunswick," "Goat Hunting in the Cascade Range," "A Deer Hunt in the Sierra Madre of Mexico," "Coupled to Chain Lightning" (an account of tarpon fishing on the Gulf Coast), "Opening Day on a Wisconsin Trout Stream," "Black Bass in Florida," and a great variety of interesting shorter sketches of outdoor life and sport. Fifteen cts. a copy. Your news-dealer can supply you; if not, send to Sports Afield, 358 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ills.

THE OLD PENN TAVERN GOES.

Dr. J. S. Coleman has purchased what is known as the old Penn Tavern, on Arlington Heights, and will erect two modern cottages on the ground occupied by it.

In the '50s this was quite a noted hotel, and enjoyed a good custom. It was burned early in 1853, and only a portion of it ever rebuilt, which was used as a tenement house.

THANKS.

We are indebted to some friend in Richmond, Va., for a copy of the Times-Dispatch, of May 5, giving an account of the beautiful and impressive incidents attached to the funeral ceremonies of the beloved Major-General Fitzhugh Lee, which took place the day before in the historic cemetery at that city.

LOUISVILLE—IN THE HEART OF THE FAMOUS BLUE GRASS OF KENTUCKY.

If you have never visited the metropolis of Kentucky, Louisville, the gateway to the South, you may never have another opportunity as favorable as the one offered during the Confederate Veterans' Reunion, June 14-18, 1905, which, it is anticipated, will attract a hundred thousand visitors from all parts of the country, but more especially from the new and bustling South and Southwest.

Rates of approximately 2 cents a mile for the round-trip will be in effect from most all points in the United States on account of the Reunion, and Kentucky is prepared to entertain royally her honored guests at that time.

It may not be amiss to remark that the "Man in Gray" will hold the centre of the limelight during this period (and he is justly entitled to this honor,) but the favorable rate will also attract a horde of sight-seers, pleasure-seekers and investors to Louisville, the town that ships more carload freight than any two other cities in the South. This freight movement is merely incidental and to acquaint you with the importance and magnitude of our business interests.

The purpose of this slip is more to interest you in Kentucky's most popular railroad, the Henderson Route—more properly termed the St. Louis-Louisville Comfort Line—as a solid comfort passenger line than as a common carrier of freight, although, we appreciate and will continue to do so, all the freight that moves our way.

Our passenger service between St. Louis, Evansville and Louisville compares favorably with any competitor, and one feature of it, we feel satisfied, is much superior—that is the "invariably on time" feature—which you will agree with us, is a very important factor.

Our equipment, consisting of Reclining Chair Cars (seats free), Pullman Drawing-room Sleepers, Vestibule High-back Seat Coaches and Parlor Cars through without change, is as fine and comfortable as any that operate in or out of Kentucky—bar none—and we earnestly solicit your patronage. In purchasing your tickets to Louisville for the Confederate Reunion, or on any trip which takes you between St. Louis, Evansville and Louisville, declare the Henderson Route in and insist on your ticket reading our way.

L. J. IRWIN,
General Passenger Agent,
Louisville, Ky.

Send five stamps (red ones) for a copy of picture entitled "The Man in Gray," a beautiful reproduction from an original drawing by Mr. Robert M. Hooe, the celebrated artist of the Louisville Courier-Journal, executed in the three cardinal colors of the Confederacy—red, blue and gray—on a white background. Picture is 16x22 inches, and is printed on fine omelette paper, sufficiently heavy for use unframed, but equally suitable for framing.

They will be enclosed in straw-board mailing tubes for safe transmission by mail, thus avoiding any possibility of breakage and insuring safe delivery.

We are also distributing a small, but complete booklet descriptive of Louisville hotels, restaurants and boarding houses, showing their capacity, rates, etc., which will be of interest to any one contemplating a trip to Louisville this summer, and which we will gladly mail on request without expense to you.

In a bulletin recently issued by U. S. Geological Survey, the origin of the name of our town is given "on account of the buffalo herds that congregated in the vicinity." It would have been more correct if it had said that it was occasioned by the herds of buffalo, which came to the Buffalo Springs to drink, standing under the shade of the big trees and stamping the ground hard by reason of the flies, which attacked them.
